

Please do not gut NJ's Do Not Call Law. It is very successful from a consumer's point of view. You should be concerned with the people who put this administration in office and not pander to special interests, ie. telemarketers.